1. The buildings and facilities of the Kadra Marynarki Wojennej (Naval Training Station) and the Szkola Specjalistow Morskich (School for Naval Specialists) occupy an area of about two square kilometers, two or three kilometers to the west of the harbor of Ustka. These establishments are located in a forest of coniferous trees along the coast. The buildings are a single story, with the exception of one unfinished three-story structure, and are consequently not visible above the surrounding trees.
  2. There follows a key to the accompanying map:
    1. The main road to Ustka, about two kilometers distant.
    2. The railway siding joining with the main line from Ustka to Slupsk (Stolp). Near the end are two switches and two loading platforms.
    3. A wire fence.
    4. A sentry box.
    5. Buildings for the families of officers and non-commissioned officers.
    6. The guard house and the prison.
    7. Building containing officers of the staff. On the roof of this building is a watch tower and a radio antenna.
    8. The garage.
    9. Two buildings used by the administrative company of the School for Naval Specialists.
    10. Building in which courses for non-commissioned officers and officer-candidates are conducted.
    11. Barracks in which recruits are quartered.
    12. Instruction building, containing, on the ground floor, classrooms with equipment necessary for instruction of communications, navigation and gunnery personnel; and on the second floor, reading rooms.
    13. Buildings with more classrooms.
    14. Barracks for the students of the Specialists' School:
      - a. Administration school company
      - b. Radio-telegraph company
      - c. Mines and torpedoes company
      - d. Machines and motor company
